30 April 1968

Dear Dick:

This is in reply to your 24 April 1968 memorandum concerning the current discussions on enemy strength figures in Vietnam.

I appreciate your offer of a briefing on the philosophy behind the CIA position on enemy OB strength figures. I suggest you have your briefing officer get in touch with my executive officer (Colonel McAuliffe -- extension 79121) to arrange a mutually convenient time. As a matter of information, I will be leaving the country Saturday (4 May) for about a week. It would probably be better to schedule the briefing before I depart.

Sincerely,

BWS

EARLE G. WHEELER
Chairman
Joint Chiefs of Staff

Mr. Richard Helms
Director, CIA
